

Portrait of Dame Emily at Church House Long Ashton

This portrait of Dame Emily Smyth is kept at Church House in Long Ashton.

Date and artist unknown.

It is not known if the portrait ever hung at Ashton Court.

The original Church House was at the Angel Inn. After it was sold in 1902, Lady Smyth paid for a new Church House to be built at Westleaze which was completed in 1907. In 2025 church house was sold at it is now in private hands. The portrait of Dame Emily was sold with the building.

Image: courtesy of Maggs and Allen sale particulars 2024/2025.

Church House interior with the portrait on the far wall.

Image: Church House, courtesy of Maggs and Allen sale particulars 2024/2025.