It has not been possible to establish the 1947 sale lot number for these chairs.

This pair of chairs from c1705 were sold for £8750 at a Christies auction in 2009. They were part of the Roger Warner Collection. Roger Warner was an antiques dealer who purchased them in the 1947 sale.

They were described as being upholstered in contemporary gros-point floral needlework, with cabriole legs with over scrolled feet and joined by wavy stretchers.

In Hector Paterson's 1920s images of Ashton Court interiors they can quite clearly be seen in the Music Room on either side of the alcove.
